

Letter of Recommendation

GUINNESS

Dublin, 16 November 2022

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Sam Brancato, senior manager of Aramark at Guinness Storehouse and I would like to highly recommend Julio de la Rosa as an employee. In my 7+ years of experience with this company, I have seen very few employees with as much commitment and discipline as he has.

Since joining the company in September 2020, he has not only carried out the tasks assigned to his position, but has also trained new staff, operated as a team leader and performed accounting tasks, among many other things. All this with brilliant ideas and results that have made him probably the employee with the best feedback from both other employees and clients.

His master's studies and his career as a freelancer, developed in parallel to his work at Guinness, have not been an impediment to his performance. On the contrary, we have been able to observe a constant evolution of his soft skills, which has translated into an increase in the quality of his work and which he has shown especially in the most complicated periods for the company.

For this reason, and much to my regret, I have to admit that Julio has reached the ceiling of the opportunities we can offer him as the Irish branch of Aramark dedicated to the hospitality sector. He is no longer the guy who came into the company looking for his first job in Ireland while improving his English and applying for graduate studies, he is now a person who is able to demonstrate his enormous skills, which will undoubtedly be an ever-increasing advantage wherever he is employed.

Best regards,
